myfidelio.net has entered a preferential agreement with Worldwide Payment Systems for central commission processing

The solution allows all customers of myfidelio.net to centrally pay commissions to any travel agency booking by any distribution channel

Neuss, Germany – March 25th, 2009 – MICROS Systems, Inc. (NASDAQ:MCRS), a leading provider of information technology solutions for the hospitality and retail industries, is pleased to announce that myfidelio.net has entered a preferential agreement with Worldwide Payment Systems (WPS) for commission processing.

Within this preferential agreement, hotels associated to myfidelio.net are provided with a global solution to manage in an efficient way their payments to the travel industry. Commission payments can be done to any travel agent, offline or online, for all hotel reservations made. These commissionable reservations can be generated by any distribution channel, GDS, Internet portals or the hotel's website.

Among the hotel groups that use the myfidelio.net services and have already started using WPS systems there are: Thon Hotels, Kempinski Hotels, Martin's Hotels, Reval Hotels and a variety of independent hotels.

"WPS provides the most efficient framework to process data and payment for the tourist industry. Our target is to optimize the operational costs for Head Offices, hotels, travel agencies, tour operators, etc. when processing commissions. WPS helps you to grow your business providing timely and cost efficient commission payments", says Angela Ybarra, WPS Commercial Director

"Timely commission settlement is key for all travel agencies and a reliable payment process increases the trust in their relationship with the hotel, contributing positively to higher reservation volumes. WPS has a very good reputation on the market, servicing hotel chains and independent hotels internationally with exceptional customer care. We are convinced that their offering will complement successfully our distribution services to the hotels using the myfidelio.net solution”, added Andrea Carrillo Bianchi, Director Business Development Software as a Service at MICROS-Fidelio EAME.

myfidelio.net is the “Software as a Service” model of the OPERA Reservation System, an enterprise solution for the hospitality industry, providing central reservation management services and connections to worldwide distribution channels, Internet portals, the GDS and the hotel corporate website. myfidelio.net offers full integration with all hotel solutions offered by MICROS, including OPERA PMS, MICROS-Fidelio Suite8 in Europe, Fidelio Version 6, and Fidelio Version 7.
